Further information when personal advice is given (*Retail Clients only)

We will provide you with further information whenever we provide you with advice, which takes into account your objectives, financial situation and needs. This information may include the advice that we have given you, the basis of the advice and other information on our remuneration and any relevant associations or interests. This information may be contained in a statement of advice (SOA) or Information About our Advice (IAOA).

When you ask us to recommend an insurance policy for you, we will usually only consider the policies offered by the Insurers or insurance providers that we deal with regularly. In giving you advice about the costs and terms of recommended policies we have not compared those policies to other policies available, other than from those Insurers we deal with regularly.

Product Disclosure Statement (*Retail Clients only)

If you are a retail client and we offer to arrange the issue of an insurance policy to you, we will also provide you with, or pass on to you, a product disclosure statement (PDS) or short-form PDS, unless you already have an up to date PDS or short-form PDS from the Insurer. The PDS or short-form PDS will contain information about the particular policy, which will enable you to make an informed decision about purchasing that policy.

*Retail Clients only

Retail clients are individuals or those who purchase an insurance product for use in connection with a small business. However they are only designated as retail clients when they purchase a general insurance contract which has been designated as a retail product, i.e.:

- Motor vehicle
- Home contents
- Consumer credit
- Personal and domestic property
- Any other kind of insurance prescribed in the Corporations Regulations 2001.
- Home building
- Sickness and accident
- Travel
- Pleasure craft

From when does this Financial Services Guide (FSG) apply?

This FSG applies from 31st January 2013, and remains valid unless a further FSG is issued to replace it. We may give you a supplementary FSG. It will not replace this FSG but will cover services not covered by this FSG.

How can you give us instructions?

You can contact us to give us instructions by post, phone, fax or email on the contact details mentioned on page 1 of this FSG.

Who is responsible for the financial services provided?

Westcourt is responsible for the financial services that will be provided to you or through you to your family members, including the distribution of this FSG. The contact details for Westcourt are on the front of this FSG.

What kinds of financial services are we authorised to provide and what kinds of financial product/s do those services relate to?

We are authorised under Westcourt's Australian Financial Services License to provide financial product advice and deal in general insurance products for wholesale and retail clients. We will do this on your behalf as your broker unless we tell you otherwise.

Will I receive tailored advice?

Maybe not in all cases. However, we may need information about your personal objectives, details of your current financial situation and any relevant information, so that we can arrange insurance policies for you, or to give you advice about your insurance needs. We will ask you for the details that we need to know. In some cases, we will not ask for any of this information. If we do not ask, or if you do not give us all of the information we ask for, any advice you receive may not be appropriate to your needs, objectives and financial situation. You should read the warnings contained in any SOA, IAOA or any other warnings that we give you, carefully before making any decision about an insurance policy.

What information do we maintain about you and how can you access it?

Westcourt maintains a record of your personal profile including details of insurance policies that we arrange for you. Westcourt may also maintain records of any recommendations or advice given to you. Westcourt will retain this FSG and any other FSG given to you as well as any SoA, IAOA, PDS or short-form PDS that we give or pass on to you for the period required by law. Westcourt and our Authorised Representatives are committed to implementing and promoting a privacy policy, which will ensure the privacy and security of your personal information. Westcourt has taken the appropriate action to ensure we comply with the National Privacy Principles and have established a Privacy Policy. A copy of our privacy policy is available on request, or at www.wgib.com.au. If you wish to access your file, please ask us. We will make arrangements for you to do so.

How will I pay for the services provided?

Payment for the services we provide you are payable directly to Westcourt. For each insurance product, the insurer will charge a premium that includes any relevant taxes, charges and levies. Westcourt will receive a payment based on a percentage of this premium (excluding relevant taxes, charges and levies) called commission, which is paid to Westcourt by the insurers.

In some cases, we will also charge you a broker fee. These will all be shown on the invoice that is sent to you. Westcourt pays the commission and broker fee to us after deducting a management fee. You can choose to pay for our services by any of the payment methods set out in the invoice. You are required to pay Westcourt within the time set out on the invoice.

If there is a refund or a reduction of premium owed to you as a result of a cancellation or alteration to a policy, we will retain any broker fee we have charged you. Westcourt will retain any commission that was paid to them by the insurer for the policy and we may retain the portion of the commission that was paid to us by Westcourt. We may also charge you a cancellation fee.

When you pay us your premium it will be banked into Westcourt's trust account. Westcourt will retain the commission from the premium you pay us and remit the balance to the insurer in accordance with Westcourt's arrangements with the insurer. Westcourt will earn interest on the premium while it is in their trust account or Westcourt may invest the premium and earn a return. Westcourt will retain any interest or return on investment earned on the premium.

How are any commissions, fees or other benefits calculated for providing the financial services?

The commission the Insurer pays to Westcourt will be calculated based on the formula: $P \times Y\% = X$. In this formula P = the amount you pay for any insurance policy (less any government fees or charges included in that amount). Y% = the percentage commission paid to Westcourt by the Insurer. X = Westcourt's commission. Westcourt's commission varies between 0 and 30%.

We may also charge you a broker fee in addition to commission when you enter into an insurance policy. The amount of the fee will depend on the complexity of the services we are providing. For retail clients* this will range from $0-$500. For all clients the amount of any broker fee charged will be shown on your invoice.

Westcourt deducts a management fee of between 5% and 25% from the total commission and broker fee received and pays the remainder of the broker fee and commission to us. We do not often pay any commissions, fees or benefits to others who refer you to us. If we do, we will pay commissions to those people out of the commission and fees passed to us by Westcourt (not in addition to those amounts), in the range of 0 to 50% of our commission or fees.

If we give you (as a Retail client) personal advice, we will inform you of any fees, commission or other payments we, our associates or anyone referring you to us will receive in relation to the policies that are the subject of the advice at the time that the personal advice is given or as soon as practicable after that time. Where the fees, commission or other payments are not calculable at the time the personal advice is given, the manner in which the remuneration or other benefits are to be calculated will be disclosed at the time the personal advice is given or as soon as practicable after that time. See below for information on the Steadfast association and commission.

Do we have any relationships or associations which might reasonably influence us?

Steadfast Group Limited

Westcourt is a shareholder of Steadfast Group Limited (Steadfast). Steadfast has exclusive arrangements with some Insurers under which Steadfast will receive between 0.5 - 1% commission for each product arranged by Westcourt and its Authorised Representatives with those Insurers. These payments are used to operate Steadfast.

Depending on the operating costs of Steadfast (including the costs of member services provided by Steadfast to Westcourt and other Steadfast shareholders) and the amount of total business Westcourt and its Authorised Representatives place with the participating Insurers in any financial year, Westcourt may receive a proportion of that commission at the end of each financial year.

As a shareholder of Steadfast, Westcourt has access to member services including model operating and compliance tools, procedures, manuals and training, legal, technical, banking and recruitment advice and assistance, group insurance arrangements, product comparison and placement support, claims support and group purchasing arrangements. These member services are either funded by Steadfast, subsidised by Steadfast or available exclusively to shareholders for a fee.

Steadfast and Miramar Underwriting Agency Pty Limited

Steadfast is also a shareholder in Miramar Underwriting Agency Pty Limited (Miramar). As a shareholder, Steadfast may receive dividends from Miramar. These amounts will indirectly contribute towards the benefits we receive from Steadfast.

Steadfast and Macquarie Premium Funding

Steadfast has a shareholding in Macquarie Premium Funding (Macquarie). If we arrange premium funding with Macquarie for you, under its agreement with Macquarie, Steadfast will receive 0.5% of your insurance premium (including government fees or charges). As an equity shareholder of Macquarie, Steadfast may also receive dividends from profits of Macquarie.

The amount of the Steadfast dividend is based on the share of profit attributable to funding arranged by Steadfast shareholders. The payments (commission and dividends) that Steadfast receives from Macquarie are used to operate Steadfast. Depending on the operating costs of Steadfast and the amount of total business we place with Macquarie in any financial year, Westcourt may receive a portion of those amounts at the end of each financial year.

You can obtain a copy of Steadfast's FSG at www.steadfast.com.au

Westcourt and Macquarie Premium Funding (Westcourt Premium Funding)

Westcourt has established a premium funding intermediary called Westcourt Premium Funding. Westcourt Premium Funding is owned by Westcourt and its Authorised Representatives. Westcourt Premium Funding has an arrangement with Macquarie Premium Funding (Macquarie) under which Westcourt Authorised Representatives may receive commission of up to 4% of the amount of your insurance premium (including government fees or charges) that is funded by Macquarie.

As an owner of Westcourt Premium Funding, Westcourt and their Authorised Representatives will be entitled to dividends from profits of Westcourt Premium Funding. The amount of any dividend entitlement of each Authorised Representative is based on the proportionate share of funding arranged by each Authorised Representative with Macquarie. Any payments that Westcourt receives from Macquarie is used to operate Westcourt Premium Funding. Westcourt Authorised Representatives may receive a portion of those amounts at the end of each financial year once all operating costs are met.

Westcourt and other Premium Funding Companies

If we arrange premium funding for you with any premium funder other than Macquarie, we or Westcourt may be paid a commission by the premium funder. Westcourt passes the commission they receive from the funder to Westcourt Premium Funding in full. The commission that we or Westcourt are paid by the premium funder is usually calculated as a percentage of your insurance premium (including government fees or charges). If you instruct us to arrange premium funding for you, this is when we or Westcourt becomes entitled to the commission.

Commission rates for premium funding are usually in the range of 0 to 5% of funded premium. When we arrange premium funding for you, you can ask us what commission rate we or Westcourt is paid for that funding arrangement compared to the other arrangements that were available to you. The amount we are paid is set out in the premium funding contract. Some premium funders may pay Westcourt a volume bonus based on the volume of business Westcourt and we place with them. This payment may be passed on to us.

Cooling off Period (applies for *Retail clients only)

A cooling off period may apply to an insurance policy issued to you as a retail client*. During the period you may return the policy. Details of your cooling off rights will be included in the relevant Product Disclosure Document.

It is your (the Insured's) responsibility to ensure the accuracy of all information supplied on the proposal prior to signing the document. The policy document issued by the Insurer forms the agreement between you and the Insurer. Upon receipt of this document we recommend you check the details thoroughly to ensure the cover meets your requirements.
